ABOUT THE EVENT

Magnus Group takes great privilege in announcing its “3rd Edition of Global Conference on Agriculture and Horticulture” (AGRI 2023) which is going to be held Valencia, Spain during September 11-13, 2023. The worldwide conference will be centered around the theme “Future of Plants and Plants for Future.”

AGRI 2023 is scheduled in Hybrid Format with both onsite and virtual versions. We believe that our decision will enable broad participation.

Agriculture is a country's most vital sector. It is absolutely essential for our survival. Agriculture's Emerging Trends are a primary driver of the sector's expansion. Emerging agricultural trends imply new technology and strategies that get more sophisticated with time. The agriculture sector has undergone significant changes over the previous several decades, and new technologies have also expanded in this sector. The sector is expanding as a result of all of these factors. Agriculture's recent advancements have made farming activities more acceptable and comfortable for farmers. These developments or trends benefit not just the growth of agriculture, but also the conditions of farmers.

The agenda of the consortium is to congregate an array of researchers, academicians, plant science experts, agriculturists, horticulturists, scientists, botanists, biotechnologists, industrialists to discuss their recent findings of research and case studies from around the world in concurrent sessions, as well as providing numerous networking and collaboration opportunities. At this prominent conference, learn about the newest trends and difficulties in the area, and take full advantage of everything the Virtual Conference has to offer. It is one of the most important and widespread conferences for presenting cutting-edge research in the fields of agriculture and allied fields. It also promotes communication among scholars and practitioners from other scientific fields who share an interest in enhancing Agricultural approaches.

AGRI 2023 also provides an opportunity to hold a plenary talks, oral and poster presentations, workshop, seminar, or expo to explore new opportunities in agricultural domains and associated sectors. views and ideas and can improve their knowledge about the advanced techniques to increase the productivity of the industries.
